6. GDPR - INFORMATION USES

Information you supply may be used for the purposes of insurance administration by the insurer, its associated companies and agents, by reinsurers and your intermediary. It may be disclosed to regulatory bodies for the purposes of monitoring and/or enforcing the insurer's compliance with any regulatory rules/codes. Your information may also be used for offering renewal, research and statistical purposes and crime prevention. It may be transferred to any country, including countries outside the European Economic Area for any of these purposes and for systems administration.

In assessing any claims made, the insurer or its agents may undertake checks against publicly available information (such as electoral roll, county court judgments, bankruptcy orders or repossessions). Information may also be shared with other insurers either directly or via those acting for the insurer (such as loss adjusters or investigators). With limited exceptions, and on payment of the appropriate fee, you have the right to access and if necessary rectify information held about you. For further information please refer to the privacy policy available through our website www.argus.com.mt/privacy-policy

7. PERSONAL DATA ON COMPUTER EQUIPMENT

So as to minimise the risk of any data being obtained by third parties, should any computer, smartphone or IT equipment be lost or damaged it is recommended that all personal data be removed, or equipment returned to factory settings and manufactures or providers be informed where possible.

Please also note that Argus Insurance Company (Europe) Limited, Malta Branch cannot accept responsibility for any data on electrical equipment submitted to the company.

8. VERY IMPORTANT - FRAUDULENT AND EXAGGERATED CLAIMS

Deliberately exaggerated claims could invalidate your policy cover. Insurance fraud is a crime and liable to prosecution. The above answers to our questions will be the basis of consideration of your claim. You must ensure that all information is true, correct and complete to the best of your knowledge and belief, and that all material facts have been disclosed. A material fact is one that is likely to influence us in the assessment or acceptance of this claim, or application of cover under the terms and conditions of your policy. If you are in any doubt as to whether a fact is material, you must disclose it. Failure to do this may mean that your policy becomes invalid and a claim payment will not be made.

I / We declare that the foregoing particulars to be correct to the best of my/our knowledge and belief. I /We understand that you may seek information from other insurers to check the answers I/we have provided. This report is made in the bona fide belief that litigation may ensue and to enable solicitors and/or agents to conduct such litigation and advise in relation thereto.

9. DATA PROTECTION NOTICE

Processing of personal data is regulated by the General Data Protection EU 2016/679 together with other laws which relate to privacy and electronic communications. In this clause, we refer to these laws as "Data Protection Law". During the course of our engagement with you it will be necessary for you to disclose certain personal data to us in order that we provide our services to you and to enable us to discharge the services agreed, to comply with related legal and regulatory obligations for other related purposes including updating and enhancing clients records and analysis for management purposes. This will require us to obtain, use, disclose and otherwise process personal data about you and, if applicable, your organisation, its shareholders members and/or officers and employees.

For clarity, Data Protection Law contemplates various grounds which may render processing of personal data lawful, including where it is necessary for a contract, mandate by law, it is in your legitimate interest (and does not override your policy, and/or if you give us your consent. Our Privacy Notice (which can also be accessed at www.argus.com.mt) or provide to you in hard copy upon request, explains how we process personal data. In providing our services we act as an independent data controller and are, therefore responsible for complying with Data Protection Law in respect of any personal data we process.

Our Interest is You.
