13. VERY IMPORTANT - FRAUDULENT AND EXAGGERATED CLAIMS

Deliberately exaggerated claims could invalidate your policy cover. Insurance fraud is a crime and liable to prosecution. The above answers to our questions will be the basis of consideration of your claim. You must ensure that all information is true, correct and complete to the best of your knowledge and belief, and that all material facts have been disclosed. A material fact is one that is likely to influence us in the assessment or acceptance of this claim, or application of cover under the terms and conditions of your policy. If you are in any doubt as to whether a fact is material, you must disclose it. Failure to do this may mean that your policy becomes invalid and a claim payment will not be made.

I / We declare that the foregoing particulars to be correct to the best of my/our knowledge and belief. I /We understand that you may seek information from other insurers to check the answers I/we have provided. This report is made in the bona fide belief that litigation may ensue and to enable solicitors and/or agents to conduct such litigation and advise in relation thereto.

14. DATA PROTECTION NOTICE

Processing of personal data is regulated by the General Data Protection EU 2016/679 together with other laws which relate to privacy and electronic communications. In this clause, we refer to these laws as "Data Protection Law". During the course of our engagement with you it will be necessary for you to disclose certain personal data to us in order that we provide our services to you and to enable us to discharge the services agreed, to comply with related legal and regulatory obligations for other related purposes including updating and enhancing clients records and analysis for management purposes. This will require us to obtain, use, disclose and otherwise process personal data about you and, if applicable, your organisation, its shareholders members and/or officers and employees.

For clarity, Data Protection Law contemplates various grounds which may render processing of personal data lawful, including where it is necessary for a contract, mandate by law, it is in your legitimate interest (and does not override your policy, and/or if you give us your consent. Our Privacy Notice (which can also be accessed at www.argus.com.mt) or provide to you in hard copy upon request, explains how we process personal data. In providing our services we act as an independent data controller and are, therefore responsible for complying with Data Protection Law in respect of any personal data we process.

You are responsible for complying with Data Protection Law in respect of the personal data you process and, accordingly, where you disclose personal data to us you confirm and warrant that such disclosure is fair and lawful, that where applicable and necessary you have obtained lawful consent from others for you to pass on their personal data to us, to the Argus Group and third-parties to whom we disclose personal data (and for the Argus Group and said third-parties to share the personal data with us), and otherwise it does not contravene Data Protection Law. Noting within this document relieves you of your own direct responsibilities and liabilities under Data Protection Law Terms used in this clause bear the same meanings as are described to them in Data Protection Law. This clause does not apply to the extent that we act as a data processor for you I which case specific data protection instructions are to be signed between us.

Our Interest is You.
